GHANA PERCUSSIVE ARTS SOCIETY IN THE NEWS:

DOP 2004 VIDEO

Ghana's Day of Percussion to be hosted by the Ghana Percussive Arts Society in association with a number of NGOs from Ghana at two venues, Mankessim in the Central region and New Edubiase from 11th-13th September,2008.

KPANLOGO is a reference to a special Ga drum and its ensemble suite from the Greater Accra region. It is one of the most popular drums from Ghana. 2008 is an election year in Ghana; Tolerance to opposing views and Peaceful campaigns are highly needed during the pre and post electioneering time. KPANLOGO FOR PEACE as a theme link for our DOP is to make our programme relevant to our nation's situational needs and to reflect on, and drive home the importance and the power of percussion in advocating and calling for peace in Ghana during this critical time of our nation's political history. Many groups from Ghana and beyond have confirmed their participation. Among the groups are Abladei, Africussion-Ghana and Africana Drum and Dance Company from Accra, Etsii Korowa Drum and Dance Ensemble, Obrumankoma Traditionals, Ebibiman, Nananom, Borborfantse Fontonfrom Group, Kwaanan and the Kyidom Drummers, Mankessim Roman Catholic Brass Band, New Edubiase Catholic Brass band, Akrof uom Kete group, New Edubiase's Owoaman and Esereso Susubiri Adowa group as well as Togbe Yao's Drummers from Togo.
